Book Study of Thomas Kempis'

The Imitation of Christ

Thomas Kempis' The Imitation of Christ was originally written in Latin in the early 1400s and has been the best-selling Christian work of all-time besides the Holy Bible. This work, which balances the reminder of the consolation of the arms of our loving Father with the challenge of the Lord's call to be perfect has molded the lives of countless souls over the past 800 years including St. Thomas More, St. Ignatius of Loyola, St. Therese of Lisieux.
